Gladys G. Hart, daughter of William and Melissa Engle Baltz, was born December 6, 1882, near Spencerville, Indiana. She was the oldest of four daughters and one son. Her brother, Grant Baltz, and a sister, Grace Webb, now survive. Because her mother died when Gladys was about twelve, she, along with her father, assumed the responsibility of raising the younger children.

She was married to Clyde Hart on January 27, 1900, in Hicksville, Ohio. God blessed them with fatherhood and motherhood and born to this union were three children, Berniece Wilder, Kart Hart and Alice Kagey.

She became a member of the Coburn Corners Church of Christ October 10, 1903, and served faithfully in its ministries until God called her from this life's existence. The giving of her life and the lives of her children to Christ and the church was done willingly and with great pride.

Her life's testimony can be summed up in the words of Holy Scripture: "Strength and honor are her clothing . . . in her tongue is the law of kindness . . . she eats not the bread of idleness . . . her children rise up and call her blessed . . . a woman who reverently and worshipfully fears the Lord . . ." (Proverbs 31).

She departed this life at her home at the age of eighty-seven.
